SCOTTISH AUTISM RESEARCH GROUP (SARG) MAILING LIST: PRIVACY STATEMENT

Information about you: how we use it and with whom we share it
Last updated February 2019

The Scottish Autism Research Group (SARG) only uses the personal data you have provided in order to send you information about autism-relevant research, opportunities and events. To do so, we are using the University's 'mlists' as our mailing system. The information you provide will be used by the University to:

- Keep you up to date with news and progress regarding autism-relevant research, opportunities and events
- Provide you with information on any services you have requested and the promotion of benefits and services
- Ensure we only communicate with you about events, opportunities, or services of interest to you

We are currently using information about you because you have previously indicated your interest to be added to our mailing list.

We will hold the personal data you provided us for 1 year. After this period we will send communication to you querying whether you wish to remain on our mailing list. Alternatively, you can opt out of the mailing list at any time.

We do not use profiling or automated decision-making processes. A human decision maker will always be involved before any decision is reached in relation to you.
